

iDance Bendigo – Fees and Charges Effective 1 Jan 2018

Our class and lesson pricing options offer true value for money and ultimate flexibility.

Choose either a casual option or make a weekly commitment and save. Under a weekly commitment the selected number of classes/lessons are added to your iDance student account at the beginning of each week on Monday.

Every class/lesson purchased has an expiry date of 2 weeks so if you miss a week you can catch up and not miss out as the class/lesson with the shortest expiry date will be utilised first.

Private Lessons are one on one tuition conducted with an Instructor or Premium Instructor and up to 2 students

- An Instructor as determined by iDance Bendigo management is a trained dance instructor or assistant dance instructor/coach who can conduct private tuition without supervision.
- A Premium Instructor as determined by iDance Bendigo management is a trained dance instructor with extensive dance, dance coaching experience and abilities who can conduct private tuition without supervision.

iDance Bendigo reserves the right to alter the descriptions and/or change the format of classes or lessons for any of its services. The student (or parent/guardian) will be notified if the changes adversely affect the value of the class or lesson.

The student (or parent/guardian) agrees to provide payment for classes and/or lessons purchased prior to commencement of each class or lesson by ensuring that sufficient funds are paid into the iDance student account to cover the cost of the class or lesson purchased; or by making payment for the class or lesson on the day it is taken.

The student (or parent/guardian) agrees to notify iDance management a minimum of 24 hours prior to cancelling a scheduled lesson. An active credit for a lesson in the iDance student account will be utilised for any cancellation of less than 24 hours' notice. If an active credit is not available, the student's account will be charged a full lesson fee at the appropriate rate.

The student and/or parent/guardian agrees to abide by the behavioural standards and dress codes as described in the descriptions of each class (and as implemented by iDance Bendigo from time to time at their discretion) while participating in classes and lessons; while in the studio waiting for classes and lessons; and while entering or exiting the studio.

iDance Bendigo reserves the right to exclude students from participation in classes at their discretion and without refund for any breach of behavioural standards.

The student and/or parent/guardian agrees to follow all reasonable instructions given by iDance Team members while participating in classes and lessons; while in the studio waiting for classes and lessons and while entering or exiting the studio.

iDance Bendigo – Fees and Charges Effective 1 Jan 2018

When purchasing a 'Weekly Commitment' for classes and/or lessons the student (or parent/guardian) agrees to the selected number of classes or lessons to be charged to their iDance Student account on the Monday of each week.

The agreement will remain in place until:

- an equal or higher value agreement covering the same service category is entered into; or
- a minimum of 7 days notification is given in writing by the student (or parent/guardian) to temporarily suspend the agreement for a mutually agreed period; or
- a minimum of 4 weeks notification is given in writing by the student (or parent/guardian) of their intention to cancel the agreement (not applicable to 3 or 6 month class packages); or
- iDance Bendigo choose to cancel the agreement at their discretion.

When purchasing an 'Examination Course', '3 Month Package', '6 Month Package' or 'Course and Class Package' the student (or parent/guardian) agrees to the selected classes or lessons to be charged to their iDance Student account on the Monday of each week prior to the applicable lesson.

The agreement will remain in place until:

- For the full duration of the selected course or package; or
- iDance Bendigo choose to cancel the agreement at their discretion.

Individual agreements may contain specific inclusions related to the class/lesson option selected by the student (or parent/guardian) and will be provided to the student (or parent/guardian) on request.

In the case of the iDance student account containing multiple active credits for dance classes or lessons, iDance Bendigo will ensure that the credit with the oldest activation date is applied first and will take reasonable steps to ensure that the student (or parent/guardian) is made aware of unused class sessions and lessons. However, the student (or parent/guardian) takes full responsibility for ensuring that unused class sessions or lessons are scheduled before their expiry. iDance will also make every reasonable effort to ensure the availability of Coaches for lessons however is unable to guarantee availability if a lesson is drawing close to its expiry date and has not been scheduled by the student (or parent/guardian).

Expired class sessions and lessons will not be refunded or extended unless the student was unable to attend a scheduled class or lesson as a direct result an act or omission by iDance Bendigo or one of its staff.

On agreement to automatic regular payments each student will be provided with a Ezidebit Service agreement which outlines the specific terms of the payment arrangement.

A regular payment in line with the amount of the selected class and lesson options and agreed payment schedule will be charged to the student's (or parent/guardian's) bank account/credit card as provided by the student (or parent/guardian) from the date of acceptance of the agreement.

The student (or parent/guardian) agrees to indemnify iDance Bendigo for any and all costs associated the failure of a regular payment to process and agrees to reimburse iDance Bendigo for the failed payment plus costs within 7 days of being notified of such.

Multiple failed payments will result in the agreement being terminated by iDance Bendigo and will incur an administrative fee of $40 in addition to reimbursement of the failed payments and associated costs.

iDance Bendigo will reserve the right to recover debts incurred by the student (or parent/guardian) as a result non-payment of a dishonoured direct debit or credit card charge and to charge for expenses incurred as a result of collection activities.
